EMI at Sophia

Our diversity, challenges and developments

上智大学のEMI:多様性・発展と更なる挑戦

This is our first attempt to offer an FD seminar bilingually. We welcome Sophia faculty and staff an enjoyable opportunity to learn what EMI is, and how it is being implemented at Sophia University. The uniqueness of this FD session is that we will first hear three VOICES from Sophia faculty about their own experiences. This will be followed by a talk by Prof Jim McKinley (University College London-IOE). Finally, we end with a Q&A panel with all VOICES involved, including those from the audience.

「EMIとは何か」「上智大学でどのようにEMIが実施されているか」について、教職員協働で学ぶ講演会です。日本語、英語の同時通訳で開催されますので、現在すでに英語での授業を担当し、EMIへの関心が高い方はもちろん、興味はあるけれど、英語での授業実施には不安があるという方まで、どなたでもご参加いただけます。上智大学の3人の先生方のVOICE(上智大学でEMIの授業を実施するうえでの経験談)をお伺いしたのち、ジム・マッキンリー博士(ロンドン大学ユニバーシティカレッジ)により講演が行われます。最後に、参加者の皆さんも交え、すべての先生方のVOICEが関与するQ&Aのパネルディスカッションが行われる、上智大学ならではの、上智大学だからこそこのプログラムになっています。

Speaker profile Jim McKinley

Dr Jim McKinley is Associate Professor of Applied Linguistics and TESOL at the IOE, UCL's Faculty of Education and Society, University of London. Before moving to the UK, Jim was an Associate Professor at Sophia University, where he taught for 11 years. His research targets implications of globalization for L2 writing, language education, and higher education studies, particularly the teaching-research nexus. Jim is co-author and co-editor of several books on research methods in applied linguistics. He is an Editor-in-Chief of the journal System, and a co-Editor of the Cambridge Elements series Language Teaching (Cambridge University Press).
